

Please don't pass any telemarketing bill which would invalidate Indiana's No-call law. I am very happy with the results of our law and do not want it weakened by a national law which is more permissive. Indiana's law works well--my telemarketing calls have been reduced to almost none. That's how I like it. Please do not sabotage Indiana's no call law by a superceding weaker national law.

Marilyn M. Shaver